

YOUR ROADMAP TO Success

You deserve a life and business that work together the way you want them to.

For many business owners (and humans in general), there will be a time when you're stuck. Like really stuck.

I know because I've experienced this. My friends have experienced this. And my mentors have experienced this.

It's normal ... but it's also really annoying. And what I've learned is that being stuck isn't usually about all the things we have to do, or that we want to nail down. It's actually about not knowing where to start or not being able to see a crucial part of the puzzle.

They're called blind spots. I have them and you have them. And we always will.

But there is a cure for blind spots. Having another set of eyes on us and our businesses.

We're in the weeds of our businesses day in and day out. When you're that close to it, it can be hard to get the perspective we need.

Not to mention all the noise we see online telling us to try this strategy and that tactic and all the other "must have" things that distract us from what really matters.

That's why having someone else look at your goals with you and give you the perspective you need to see your business clearly again is so valuable. It helps you get clear and get moving like never before.

YOUR ROADMAP TO ➔ Success

If you're not meeting your goals, it might only be kinda your fault.

You see, somewhere along the way someone told made us believe that the best thing for us is to set yearly goals. And that's not all bad ... it's just that a year is a really long time, so our brain has a really hard time understanding and acting on that information.

That's why I actually set goals and create action plans 90 days at a time. It's one of the secrets to my success and how I'm able to focus and get so much done in just a little bit of time.

With 90 day goals and action plans in place, you will feel more motivated, see more progress, and celebrate way more often (and who doesn't love that?!).

That's why I made the Your Roadmap to Success intensive focus solely on a 90 day plan -- because I don't want you to be overwhelmed anymore.

I want you to walk away feeling supported, confident, and insanely motivated to start now.

That's why this is a cozy, one-on-one experience. Because your business is unique and so is your life. You don't need a one-size-fits-all plan. You need something custom tailored to you.

YOUR ROADMAP TO Success

Are you...

- An online business owner?
- Feeling stuck and ready to get out of that funk?
- Tired of the shiny objects and ready to get focused?
- Looking for a custom plan instead of a cookie cutter one?
- Ready to build a business and life on your own terms?

If you've done the courses and learned the basic skills ... and now you're realizing that you can't and frankly don't want to do it all. You actually want more focus so you can have more freedom.

Except you're struggling with where to cut back, where to go all in, and how to get from point A to point B.

Yep. That's the messy middle. And it's totally normal. But now you're asking, "How do I get out of it?"

Well, to get different results, you have to try something different.

Instead of formulas, blueprints, and magic pills, you need customized goals and plans. You need more strategy to go with the tactics and knowledge you've picked up along the way.

You might just need Your Roadmap to Success -- my personalized, one-on-one, action plan coaching session. It's just you and me for 90-minutes ... mapping your plan to achieve the goals you really want to reach in the next 90 days.

So you see more results, more income, and more freedom. You can have more of what you want. You can get out of this awkward phase and fully blossom into your dream business.

YOUR ROADMAP TO → Success

This Program Includes:

- #1 – Pre-session workbook to get crystal clear on the goals you have for your business so we can create the perfect plan for your next 90 days.
- #2 – 90 minutes with me one-on-one to take your goals and turn them into action plans that will help you stay focused and leave the overwhelm behind.
- #3 – 3 weeks of email support after the intensive to tackle any questions that come up as you dive in and make your plans (and goals!) a reality

Your Commitment

Do the pre-work. Show up for your 90-minute intensive. Share with me your results and feedback.

Your Investment

Your Roadmap to Success was born out of your feedback, so I decided to do a test run of this intensive for 8 people at the introductory price of $497 (or 2 payments of $274).

I have only 8 spots open, and honestly, because this is a test, I don't know if I will ever offer this again.
